Lovely Historic Bed & Breakfast For Sale in Leslie, AR

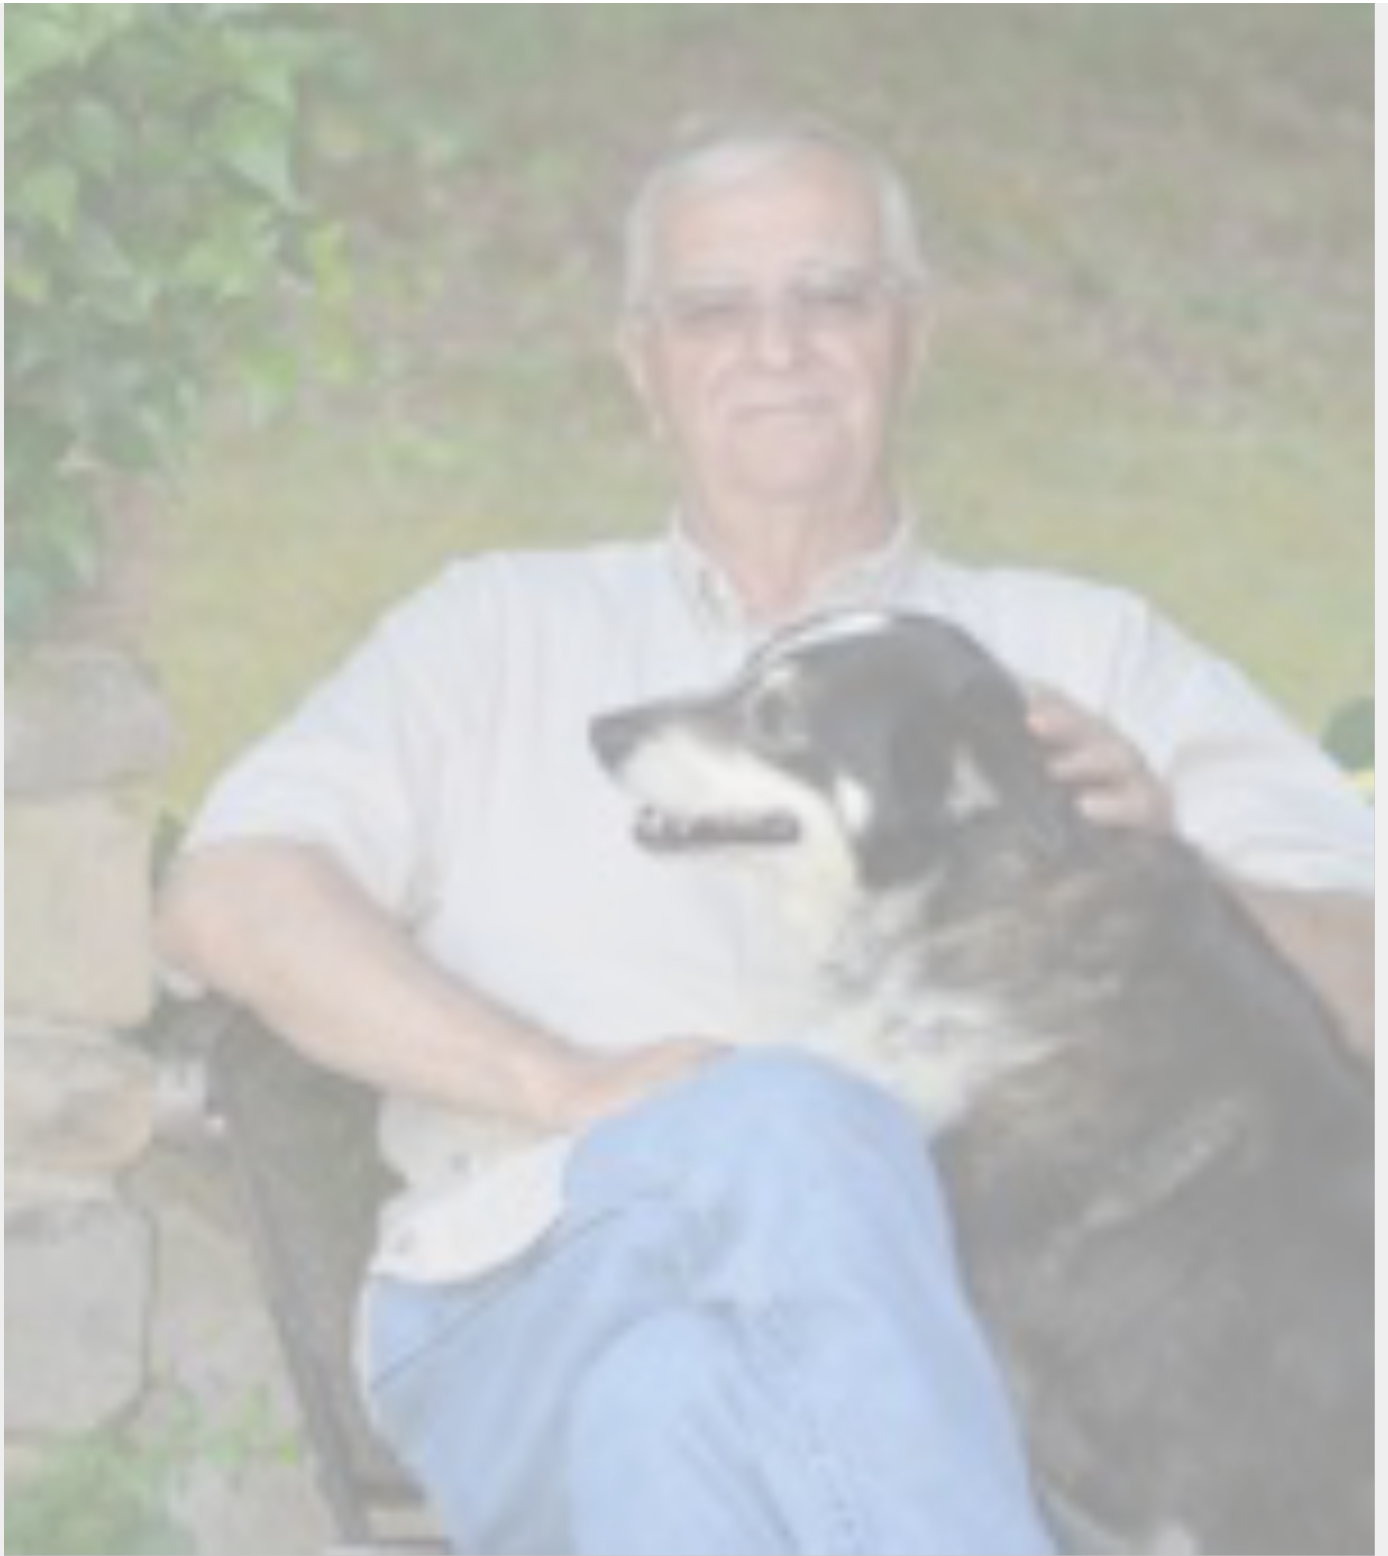

Beautiful Historic Bed & Breakfast

The Killebrew House Inn is currently operated as a bed & breakfast. The home was built in 1907 and looks as though it “stood still” in time and sits on 5.65+/- acres with creek frontage on two sides. Leslie is a small quaint Ozarks town that retains its historic charm. Main Street hosts a Commercial Historic District with several refurbished buildings featuring antique stores, a coffee shop, and well-known eating establishments.

Plenty of Space and Possibilities

This 3,611 square foot two-story home has 3 bedrooms upstairs, 2 bedrooms downstairs, a kitchenette, common area which could provide living quarters for a family. The lower level has 2 large bedrooms with bathrooms, living area, dining room, and kitchen. The house fronts on Main Street and has parking in the back. The roof was replaced 10 to 15 years ago and the whole house was remodeled in 2006. The house has an attached one car garage and other outbuildings including a small barn. Water and sewer are provided by the city of Leslie. The covered back porch offers opportunities for enjoying the great outdoors. The possibilities for this home are many as well as a great primary residence for a family.
